

In reference to earlier circular date 05.01.2015 whereby it was directed to make available the files of the motion cases to the Learned Law Officers one day earlier before lunch hours as Motion List is issued by the High Court two days before the date of hearing, I am now directed to inform all the supervisors of the respective branches that the files of the motion cases be made available to the Learned Law Officers two days earlier before lunch hours.

The Learned Advocate General has also directed that the peshi files with the Law Officers must be complete alongwith interim orders passed in the cases. All the Law Officers are requested to report to the undersigned or the Administrative Committee about any deficiency in any file if briefs assigned to them are found to be incomplete in any manner by writing the same on the email. I.D. agoffice.hr.lawofficer@gmail.com created for the convenience of all the Law Officers.
